Title: USAMA BIN LADEN
MAJOR CASE #161

AL-QAEDA;
THE ISLAMIC ARMY;
OO:NY

Synopsis: The purpose of this communication is advise all field offices to allow access in ACS to case files related to UBL to NYO and reiterate reporting guidelines for information being routed to New York for the above referenced case files.

b7E

Details: It has recently come to the attention of NYO that other field offices have not opened access to Usama Bin Laden/Al Qaeda related cases. Many field offices have access through ACS to NYO's files, but NYO has been unable to access through ACS related cases in other field offices. It is therefore requested that all field offices with cases relating to UBL/Al-Qaeda, allow access to those files to the following NYO personnel:

SSA

and

b6

b7C

For information of receiving offices, the Kenbom/Tanbom trial is scheduled to begin January 3, 2001 for the following six defendants currently in custody:

Wadih El-Hage;
Ali Mohamed;
Mamdouh Mahmud Salim;
Mohamed Sadeek Odeh;
Mohamed Rashed Daoud Al-'Owhali; and

Khalfan Khamis Mohamed

The indictment alleges the defendants conspired to murder, bomb and maim. Specifically, the defendants were part of an international terrorist group dedicated to opposing non-Islamic governments with force and violence. The group calling itself "AL-QAEDA" was formed by defendants UBL and Muhammad Atef and others. It was a part and an object of said conspiracy that the defendants, and others known and unknown would and did murder United States nationals anywhere in the world. In furtherance of said conspiracy, and to effect the illegal objects thereof, the following overt acts, among others were committed:

Guesthouses and training camps for Al-Qaeda and its affiliated groups were established. American citizens were recruited in order to utilize the American citizens for travel. Surveillance of embassies took place. Financial dealings took place on behalf of Al-Qaeda, including, but not limited to: purchasing land for training camps; purchasing explosives; purchasing communication equipment; and transporting currency and weapons to members of Al-Qaeda worldwide.

Due to the large amount of documents being generated in the above referenced case files and the variety of classification levels involved, New York is requesting all offices proceed under the following guidelines when generating paperwork on these matters.

[REDACTED]
The [REDACTED] file is the criminal portion of the USAMA BIN LADEN investigation and any requests/responses for toll records, financial records or other subpoenas and other leads should be UNCLASSIFIED. Responses to leads should be contained on FD-302s, inserts or other appropriate documentation and forwarded in an unclassified manner. If the response/request contains information that should, by its nature, be classified, it should be directed to [REDACTED]. In addition, it is requested that all responses to New York contain the appropriate sub-file, which are referenced in the outgoing communication sent by NYO setting the lead. FD 302's should contain file # [REDACTED] for direct uploading in ACS under the [REDACTED] file. Additionally, [REDACTED]

b1
b3
b7A
b7E

(S) requested under the criminal case. New York will provide subpoenas for obtaining such information. No [REDACTED] derived material should be sent to this file unless it has been cleared for passage to the criminal case.

Numerous subfiles have been opened on various subjects, searches, etc, and are designated on outgoing communications. Receiving offices are requested to respond to leads under these designated subfiles.

[redacted]
If an investigation is opened as an intelligence matter related to the [redacted] AL-QAEDA file, or results in another division opening an intelligence case based on information provided by New York, communications to New York should be directed to [redacted] not the [redacted] case. Any

b7E

b3

(S) (S) [redacted] derived material should not be sent to the [redacted] file. [redacted] derived intelligence related to BIN LADEN should be provided under the [redacted] caption only.

b1

b3

b7A

b7E

New York requests compliance of the above to facilitate disclosure obligations, maximize the results of investigative efforts for criminal use and prosecution and minimize the likelihood of unwanted disclosures which could compromise sensitive techniques of intelligence.

(U) ~~(S)~~ Classified By: 4877, NS3/CTD
Reason: 1.5(c)
Declassify On: X1

Details: ~~(S)~~/OC/NF) There have been claims of responsibility by four (U) (4) groups regarding the October 12, 2000, attack on the USS Cole. Those groups include the Islamic Army of Aden, Islamic Deterrent Forces, Mohammad's Army and the Organization of the Oppressed in Jabal Amil. Like previous suspected Usama Bin Laden-sponsored attacks in East Africa in 1998, and planned attacks in Jordan in 1999, the United States was the intended target for an attack designed to bring about the deaths of American citizens. In totality, two hundred and forty-one (241) persons, including 31 Americans, were killed in the terrorist bombings in Kenya and Yemen.

(U) In addition to targeting U.S. interests overseas, terrorists operating in support of the international jihad movement have also conducted acts of terrorism on U.S. soil. Specifically, on February 26, 1993, Islamic extremists of various nationalities aligned with Sheikh Omar Abdel Rahman, spiritual leader of the Egyptian Al Gama Al Islamiyya (AGAI) and the Egyptian Islamic Jihad (EIJ), bombed the World Trade Center (WTC) in New York City. Six persons were killed and another 1,000 were injured in this attack. Subsequent to this attack, the FBI thwarted a plot in June 1993 by other Islamic extremists operating under the guidance of Sheikh Rahman to bomb several targets in the New York metropolitan area. Prior to this time, the United States appeared invulnerable to international terrorist activity on U.S. soil.

~~(S)~~/NF) In addition, the FBI investigation regarding Ahmed Ressam and his attempt to enter the United States in December, 1999, continues. As receiving offices are aware, on December 14, 1999, Ressam was arrested after attempting to enter the United States at the Port Angeles, Washington, point of entry. Ressam, who was carrying multiple forms of identification in varying names, was transporting items which could be used to make several explosive devices. To date, Ressam's target(s) in the United States are unknown. It is also unknown how many others were involved in the plot, and the organizational structure of the group of individuals associated with this case. In addition, it is unknown if Ressam was acting on behalf of a specific terrorist group/sponsor. Ressam and some of his conspirators have been linked to the overall Sunni Islamic extremists network.

~~(S)~~/NF) Guided by radical spiritual leaders, such as Sheikh Rahman, and extremist Islamic benefactors, such as UBL, terrorist attacks conducted by the international jihad movement are increasingly overshadowing attacks conducted by other terrorist groups and state sponsors. Further, the level of sophistication and lethality of attacks has significantly increased over the years. This is believed to be attributed to the conjoin of former Arab-Afghan mujahadeen with extensive explosives and combat experience into a movement dedicated to international jihad. The well-planned attack on the USS Cole, a U.S. Navy destroyer, is indicative of the capabilities and impudence of this movement and its members/supporters.

(U) ~~(S/NF)~~ In response to the attack on the USS Cole and the continuing threat posed by UBL and other terrorists operating within the framework of the international jihad movement, a number of disruption operations have been initiated overseas. Intelligence gleaned, thus far, from these operations indicates that the United States continues to be a primary target for attack by UBL and his supporters. In addition, intelligence suggests that there may be plans for additional attacks targeting U.S. interests. To date, however, the FBI is not in receipt of any specific target, location or time frame for reported UBL-supported attack(s). Nevertheless, disruption operations in the past have resulted in terrorist reprisals. As an example, in October 1995, the AGAI claimed responsibility for the suicide car bombing of local police headquarters in Rijeka, Croatia. This attack was in response to the detainment of an AGAI leader in Croatia. Further, in mid-November 1999, the FBI received information indicating that a Yemen-based UBL-aligned terrorist and unidentified terrorists residing in Pakistan had made plans to bomb U.S. targets in Saudi Arabia and Yemen. No specific U.S. targets were mentioned. The attacks, which ultimately were not carried out, were reportedly planned to retaliate for the execution of a Sunni extremist leader in Yemen.

(U) ~~(S/NF)~~ In addition to the potential threat posed by UBL and the international jihad movement, events currently unfolding in the world arena, such as the ongoing crisis in the Middle East, could portend potential acts of anti-U.S. terrorism by other Islamic extremists. Recently, the FBI learned that Egyptian AGAI leader [redacted] who perceives the United States as pro-Israel, has called upon Islamic extremists worldwide to target American and Israeli interests. Specifically, on September 13, 2000, [redacted] supra, issued a statement calling for Muslims to "liberate" Jerusalem, while at the same time, threatened U.S. interests in the Middle East. In the statement, [redacted] clearly voiced his opposition to the "sharing of Jerusalem with Israel" and stated "we reject the possibility of giving up one inch of Muslim Palestine, to say nothing of Jerusalem." [redacted] went on to say, "the United States must realize that the idolatrous paper-thin regime of the region will not be able to protect themselves from the anger of our people." "They must also realize that no one will be able to protect their interests in the region as long as they continue their double standards." [redacted] concluded his statement with "raining down painful blows on Jews and Americans must constitute one of the most important religious duties for every able Muslim." In addition, intelligence indicates that the Jerusalem issue is paramount to UBL supporters because it signifies the Americans are crusaders.

b7C

(U) ~~(S/NF)~~ Further exacerbating the potential terrorist threat in the near term is the advent of Ramadan, the Muslim holy month of fasting, which begins circa November 27, 2000 and ends in late December 2000. In the past, Islamic extremists have engaged in violent acts of terrorism during this time period, particularly on the "Night of Power." According to Muslim tradition, "Laylatul Qadr" or the Night of Power,

~~SECRET~~
~~NF~~

----- Working Copy -----

aka the Night of Destiny, represents the date when Allah first revealed the Quran to Muhammad. Also, on this night the gates of heaven are said to be open, sins are forgiven and prayers are answered for all those who pray. (Note: Muslim tradition dictates that the "Night of Power" occurs during the last ten days of Ramadan. During 1999, Ramadan was observed December 9, 1999 through January 7, 2000 and the Night of Power is believed to have been observed on January 4, 2000.) The "Night of Power" this year could fall on/about December 25, 2000.

~~(U)~~ (NF) In order to adequately address the potential threat emanating from UBL/Al Qaeda and the international jihad movement, recipients are requested to provide FBIHQ with any threat-related information developed in your respective offices. In furtherance of this effort, field offices should task assets for any available information specifically relating to potential terrorist activity. In addition, those field offices with border responsibilities and international airports are requested to review procedures with appropriate officials of the INS, USCS, and other law enforcement entities.

~~(U)~~ (NF) To reiterate, FBIHQ is currently not in receipt of any specific information to indicate that a UBL/Al Qaeda terrorist attack is imminent. However, given the present state of global affairs and intelligence indicating the United States remains a primary target for UBL and other Islamic extremists, the potential for anti-U.S. terrorist activity exists. Further, upcoming special events that afford widespread media coverage, particularly the Presidential Inauguration and the Super Bowl, could be attractive targets for such activity. You will be advised of additional information as it becomes available.

20 December 2000

General Abdul Aziz Al-Hurwairini
Ministry of Interior
Saudi Mabathith
Riyadh, Saudi Arabia

Subject: Interview of Usama Bin Laden (UBL)

Dear General Abdul Aziz:

As the holiest days of the Blessed month of Ramadan are celebrated, we continue to wish you and our Mabathith colleagues happy fasting and blessings and mercy from Allah.

Recently the Mabathith graciously provided [redacted] with a videotape of an interview of UBL, which was sent to our offices in the U.S. Legat [redacted] has since requested [redacted] to obtain a copy of a taped interview of UBL on behalf of the Argentine Embassy in Washington, D.C. We believe both interviews are one and the same. In any event, we kindly ask your assistance in the following matter:

b7E

On 21 September 2000 the Al Jazeera channel broadcasted an interview of Usama Bin Laden conducted by Ahmad Muwaffaq Zaydan. It is alleged that during the interview, Bin Laden, Ayman Al Zawabiri and Rifai Taha promised to liberate the religious leader Sheikh Rahman, who is presently incarcerated in the U.S.

We kindly ask for the Mabathith's assistance in providing us with a copy of this interview, if possible, and extend our sincere thanks.

Sincerely,

[redacted signature block]

Dear [REDACTED]

I am contacting you on the advice of Legat [REDACTED] Legat [REDACTED] advised that the below stated broadcast came out of your territory. This request is on behalf of the Argentine Embassy in Washington, D.C. who are seeking to obtain a video tape copy of an interview broadcasted by the "AL JAZEERA" channel on September 21, 2000, in Islamabad.

On this date, AHMAD MUWAFFAQ ZAYDAN made a televised interview to OSMAN BIN LADEN. BIN LADEN, together with AYMAN AL ZAWAHIRI and RIFAI TAHA would have promised to liberate the religious leader GAMA' AT AL ISLAMIYA, SHEIK RAHMAN, who is currently arrested in the United States. This promise was made through a video tape broadcasted by the "AL JAZEERA" channel.

SUBJECT: OSAMA BIN LADIN

Our Headquarters has provided us with the following information for you:

Usama Bin Ladin is one of the most significant sponsors of Islamic extremists activities in the world today. He is the son of Saudi construction magnate Muhammad Bin Ladin, founder of the Saudi Arabian Bin Ladin Group business empire.

Bin Ladin joined the Afghan resistance movement almost immediately following the 12/26/79 Soviet invasion of Afghanistan. He gained prominence during the Afghan war for his role in financing the recruitment, transportation and training of Arab nationals who volunteered to fight alongside the Afghan mujahedin.

Following the withdrawal of the Soviets from Afghanistan in 1989, Bin Ladin continued to support militant Islamic groups who had begun to target moderate Islamic governments in the region. Bin Ladin drew on his family's wealth to organize these extremist groups and fund camps in Afghanistan and Pakistan to provide new recruits with paramilitary training.

Saudi officials seized Bin Ladin's passport from 1989 until 1991 in an attempt to prevent him from combining forces with extremists whom he met during the Afghan war. He relocated to Sudan in 1991.

In February 1994, Saudi Arabia revoked Bin Ladin's Saudi citizenship for behavior that "contradicts the Kingdom's interests and risks harming its relations with fraternal countries"

As Bin Ladin's business interests expanded so did his financial support for Islamic extremist groups.

Bin Ladin formed a London-based dissident organization in July 1995, called the "Advisory and Reformation Committee," which has issued pamphlets critical of the Saudi Government.

Pakistani investigators noted in March 1995 that Ramzi Ahmad Yousef, the terrorist who masterminded the 1993 World Trade Center bombing, resided at a Bin Ladin funded guesthouse in Peshawar during most of the three years before his apprehension.

A leading member of the Egyptian extremist group al-Jihad, claimed in a July 1995 interview with Egyptian journalists that Bin Ladin helped fund al-Jihad and was at times aware of specific terrorist operations mounted by the group against Egyptian interests. According to alleged terrorists, recently captured by Egyptian authorities, Bin Ladin also remains the key financier behind the "Kunar" camp in Afghanistan which provides terrorist training to al-Jihad and Al-Gamma al-Islamiyyah members.

In early 1996 Bin Ladin was asked to leave Sudan at which time he moved to Afghanistan where he remains today.

In a May 1997 interview with Bin Ladin, he declared jihad against the U.S. Government. He stated that his group had focused his declaration of jihad against soldiers in the country of the two holy places (Saudi Arabia). He went on to say that even though American civilians are not targeted they must leave.

Bin Ladin's support for extremist causes has continued despite criticisms from regional governments. Algeria, Egypt and Yemen have accused Bin Ladin of financing militant Islamic groups in their own countries.

Bin Ladin has publicly claimed credit for the bombing of the OPM Sang facility in Saudi Arabia and the attack on U.S. servicemen in Somalia during Operation Restore Hope. Bin Ladin recently joined with several other terrorist organizations in issuing a FATWA urging Muslims to strike and kill U.S. citizens everywhere as a religious duty.
